

Buying an item from Amazon.com:

Calls to Action:

1. looking up an item on amazon
2. purchase it

Amazon Homepage ---> Search Bar ---> Results -----> Cart

go to search bar look up item add item to cart click on cart icon

---> Checkout

Enter payment and shipping information

This flowchart briefly shows the step look for an item on amazon, add it to your cart and purchase it.

Searching for Onion Dip on Google:

Call to Action:

1. using google to search onion dip
2. finding the top result

Browser Homepage ---> Search for Google ---> Google Search -----> Onion Dip Results

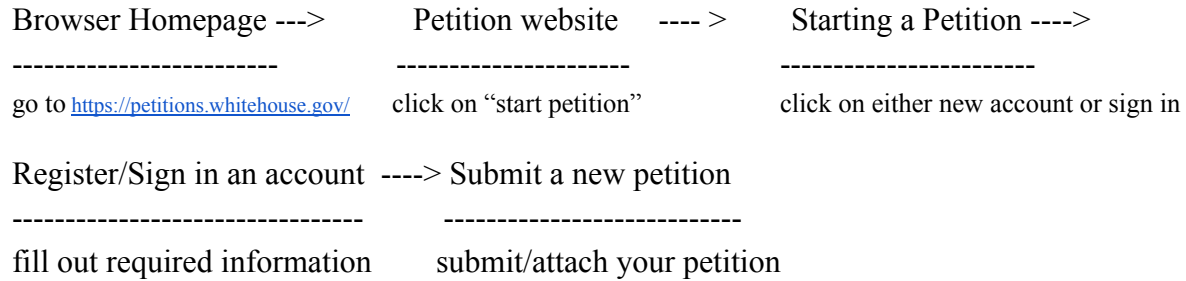

go to address bar enter google.com search onion dip browse results

This flowchart shows how to go from your browser homepage to a google search result for Onion Dip.

Submitting a Petition on <https://petitions.whitehouse.gov/>

Call to Action:

1. submitting a petition
2. viewing a petition

This flowchart shows a user how to go from browser homepage, to petitions.whitehouse.gov to submitting their own petition

My Personal Website

Call to Action:

1. Access to contact information and resume
2. Visual access to side projects

1.

Web Portfolio → Resume and Contact Info

Click on resume hyperlink to download resume

2.

Web Portfolio ----> side projects ---> examples click on side projects (various links to github/visual examples working example of a side project

Flowchart #1 shows the user how to access my contact information and resume for my web portfolio.

Flowchart #2 shows the user how to navigate the portfolio to find side projects